

Printing from PageMaker

Print to PDF

With PageMaker it is best to "print to PDF" and save that PDF file to your spool folder. You can map the spool folder to the work station so you don't need to connect through the network all the time manually.

Select Separations.

If it's RGB work click on "All to process"

